Co-operation of Whole City Is Urged; Committees Selected to Further Campaign

The Own-Your-Own-Home campaign, initiated by the State Real Estate association, was unanimously endorsed last night in the Chamber of Commerce lobby by the Glendale Realty board.

"This is unquestionably one of the biggest propositions which has come before this board in its short life of one and a half years," stated E. P. Hayward of 142 South Brand boulevard, secretary of the local organization. "Although the job is a big one, the campaign is going to be put on as thoroughly here as anywhere in the state of California."

LOCAL BASKETBALL TEAM WINS WAY INTO FINALS

Defeats Montebello After Extra Period of Play; Chance to Secure Championship

By HOWARD M'GILLIS
Sporting Editor The Evening News
Glendale high school's lightweight basketball team yesterday won its way into the finals for the southern California championship by defeating the Montebello high school entry in one of the most exciting games of the season. The final result, which was 20 to 16, was not decided until an extra five-minute period was played following the completion of the allotted playing time.

When the final whistle blew the tally sheet showed that the teams were tied with sixteen points each. Coach Hayhurst then rushed two of his stars, Butts and Wimmer, back into the fracas after both had been out for several minutes, and the point of balance was immediately turned in favor of Glendale.

After about two minutes of play Wimmer shot what proved to be the winning basket, by some clever head-work, his efforts being further augmented in the next moment by another field goal by Butts.

The contest, which was staged on the outside court at Franklin high in Los Angeles, was played before a record crowd of 400 rovers, the majority of whom formed the cheering sections of the rival schools.

Glendale Victory Deserved

Following the game a number of the spectators expressed the opinion that the tussle was the most closely contested and hair-raising prep case-a brawl that they had ever witnessed. Glendale, however, did not win through any bad break, but simply because they outplayed and outgamed their Oil City opponents.

In the first half the Red and Black players appeared in a somewhat

Building of Schools Outlined by Adventists

The Pacific Union Conference of the Seventh-day Adventists in connection with certain members of the general conference committee, have been in session in Glendale for a number of days. The principal subjects considered were the strengthening of their parochial school work in southern California.

The two conferences took steps to each erect a twelve grade school in this territory. The exact location of these schools has not yet been decided upon, but committees have been appointed to look up locations and secure plans and specifications for the buildings to be erected. Monday, March 27, the constituencies of both the southern and southeastern conferences are to meet in Glendale to make final arrangements for the building of these schools. These new enterprises will cost in the neighborhood of $200,000. Full high school work will be done and more or less normal training.

These schools are to be a part of a string of such educational institutions throughout the United States. It is estimated that each school will purchase about forty acres of garden and fruit land, and good dormitories and school buildings will be erected to take care of from two hundred to three hundred students who will attend these schools. It is hoped to have the buildings erected and furnished and in readiness for schools to open the coming autumn.

GIVE CONSTITUTION HEARTY SUPPORT, URGES SPEAKER

Harry F. Atwood of Chicago in Address at Meeting of High School P.-T. A.

"Unless something very specific and very effective is done before long, the history of this country and the world for the next ten years will make the last ten years look comparatively bright. It is the hope that something will make possible the preservation of this republic and help guide the other nations of the world out of chaos. History proves that this will not be by direct action or democracy, as it has already proven that a representative government or a republic was the first time that a country had ever been brought out of chaos."

This was one of the big statements made in the talk yesterday afternoon by Harry F. Atwood, attorney, author, and lecturer from Chicago, on "Safeguarding the Constitution" at the regular meeting of the High School Parent-Teacher Association.

In telling of the importance of people acquainting themselves with the constitution Mr. Atwood stated that the only thing that a public official is sworn to when taking the oath of office is to uphold the constitution.

"This," he stated, "means very little to the average citizen or official as they know very little about this important document.

"If you will read the history of this country you will find that just before the writing of the constitution the people, who had come to this country with their religious beliefs and ideals, were in very much the same state of chaos as is in Russia at the present time, and a large portion of the people were all willing to turn back to the monarchies of Europe.

Mrs. Alma Danford Tells of Library Work

At the regular meeting of the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle, which was held in the young folks' department rooms of the public library on Harvard street yesterday with the recently elected officers in charge, including Mrs. A. A. Barton presiding, a splendid talk on the work being done in the young folks' department of the library was given by Mrs. Alma Danford, librarian.

Mrs. Danford told of how, during the influenza epidemic, she and her logned numerous pictures, ranging in size from historical scenes to collections of butterflies. She stated that these pictures are now on file in the library for the use of schools, organizations or individuals and may be drawn the same way as library books.

Some of the needs of that department as outlined by Mrs. Danford were a desk, similar to the one in the adults' department, and also a supply of stereoscopes and pictures along industrial lines to supplement those already in the library.

The program was devoted to the study of child culture, dealing with the value of mythology and folk lore in education, taken from the book "Moral Education," which was read by Mrs. Barton. The review for next week will be on the "Literacy Conference."

LINEBERGER STATES CENTRAL EUROPE 'SHELL-SHOCKED'

Congressman of This District Back From Abroad Tells Economic Conditions

Walter F. Lineberger, congressman representing the ninth California district, which includes Glendale, recently returned from Central Europe, has written a letter to A. T. Cowan, publisher of The Glendale Evening News, in which he outlines generally conditions in Europe as he saw them.

Congressman Lineberger's communication is of more than passing interest. Extracts are given, as follows:

"My Dear Mr. Cowan—Having just returned from Central Europe where I made a careful survey of political and economic conditions with particular respect to those phases affecting our own country because of our relations with them, I thought you might perhaps be interested in a brief summary of my trip, although this letter is also written with the idea of consulting you, personally, regarding several matters I have in mind.

"As a whole, Europe today would perhaps be best described by the military term, 'shell-shocked,' and I am more firmly convinced than ever that we Americans should give renewed thanks that—although we may be beset with many problems and difficulties here—we have been spared the misery, suspicion and unrest which permeates the very atmosphere of Europe. Three years after a great war which shook every nation involved, both victor and vanquished, to its very foundations.

"Climate World Peace
"And, because of this very fact, we Americans must, with all the moral persuasion and force we possess, make it clear to the rest of the nations of the earth that we stand for ultimate world peace, though at the same time we will not view with disfavor."

NEW HEAD OF DEPARTMENT HAS WORLD WAR RECORD; ASKS FOR CO-OPERATION OF ALL CITIZENS

Appointment Made at Special Meeting of Council Last Night; Accepts With Understanding That He Is Under No Obligation To Any Person

COLONEL JOHN D. FRASER at 8 o'clock this morning took office as Glendale's new chief of police! At a special meeting of the city council, called to consider Verdugo Woodlands improvements last night, the officials decided to settle immediately the question of who should head the department. They did.

Colonel Fraser, a retired New Jersey National Guard officer, who served with the United States army during the world war, first in charge of guarding interned German ships, piers and shipyards in his home state, and later as commanding officer of the 113th infantry, at Camp McClellan, Ala., was named to permanently fill the post made vacant by the requested resignation of Chief Allen O. Martin.

Chief William A. Loving, who has been acting chief since last Friday morning, was given a hearty vote of thanks for his service and will receive fitting remuneration, it was authoritatively stated. He is a regular officer, serving without pay, holding the honorary rank of captain and in charge of police target practice.

The new chief went into office with the thorough understanding that he is absolutely untrammelled, under obligations to no one and without knowledge of the past history of local police affairs except for what he has read in the newspapers, and nothing in the past will influence him, it is said.

Complimentary to the colonel, he was appointed by the unanimous vote of the council. He is considered no stranger to Glendale, being a member of Glendale Post No. 127, American Legion, and an officer of the newly organized camp of Spanish-American War Veterans.

Expected Cooperation
In an interview with a representative of The Glendale Evening News last night, Chief Fraser said: "I am going to try to put the police force here on the highest standard of efficiency."

BELIEVE COAL STRIKE WILL LAST BUT SHORT TIME
WASHINGTON, March 16.—Although the administration is now convinced that a strike of soft coal miners on April 1 is inevitable, there is a growing belief among high government officials that the tie-up will last for only a short time and that business will not be seriously affected by the walkout, a member of the cabinet who is in close touch with the situation declared today.

SENATE IS READY TO INDOORSE WORK OF CONFERENCE
WASHINGTON, March 16.—Slightly more than two-thirds of the senate stood ready today to indorse the work of the armament conference. CLAIMS REVOLUTION IN SOUTH AFRICA IS SUPPRESSED
JOHANNESBURG, Union of South Africa, March 16.—"The revolution in the South African mine fields has been suppressed," said an official communique today. JURY TO TRY ARBUCKLE ABOUT SECURED, IS BELIEF
SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—Completion of a jury to try Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle the third time for manslaughter was probable today as the trial entered upon its fourth day. Eleven tentative jurors were in the box, including three women, when court convened. The state had exercised one of its five peremptory challenges and the defense two, with eight still in reserve. Thirteen jurors will be selected in this trial as in each of the others. The state revealed today in questioning prospective jurors that every effort will be made to keep from the record depositions being taken by the defense in Chicago regarding the past life of Virginia Rappe.

Well, Folks! This Time We Will Take a Trip Through the Plant of Henry Brown Co.; Yes, Where Sierra Club Beverages Are Produced

(The Glendale Evening News believes that local people should be acquainted with the industries here. From time to time, a brief resume of manufactories, mills, etc., will be published. Here's the second of the series):
Henry-Brown company, inc., manufacturers of Sierra Club Beverages, etc., especially the country-wide famous ginger ale, is one of Glendale's most thriving corporations with Francis J. W. Henry, vice president and general manager.
The plant is located at 602 East Wilson avenue, corner of Isabel, and is valued at $150,000. Twenty-five employees are kept busy the year round, but in the summer the crew is doubled. The payroll, therefore, varies, but is over $1000 weekly. The product is sold for the most part outside of Glendale, although practically every store here finds it the most popular line of bottled beverages. Outside of the San Fernando valley jobbers ship it to all parts of the country.

Relating the history of Sierra Club beverages, Mr. Henry said: "We started about five years ago with a small experimental plant with the idea of manufacturing a 'totally different' soda beverage—something that one would want to drink and know it contains only the best ingredients. In other words, our trademark, 'Sierra Club,' means 'totally different,' you're sure it's pure."
"When we buy raw materials we never ask the price—the only thing we are interested in is the highest quality obtainable. When there is a best and next best, we never hesitate—the best is the natural choice. Besides getting the best of raw materials, we also look out for the most up-to-date and approved machinery. "The sanitary point of manufacture is one of our main features. For instance, a bottle is never handled after it is placed in the washing machine (costing over $12,000) until after it is filled, capped and labelled and placed in the delivery case.
Another very interesting feature of our process of manufacture is our treatment of the water used in our beverages and syrups. We are presently installing additional machinery and equipment at a cost of more than $8,000 to make the water 100 per cent pure and yet leave the natural oxygen and mineral salts necessary for the human system and eliminate all disease producing bacteria, together with all the other organic matter held in solution," concluded Mr. Henry.
At some future date he may be asked to give a more detailed account of this unusual feature of the plant. In summary, it might be stated that "Sierra Club" advertised Glendale more than any one thing on account of its great volume production, properly labelled.
Sierra Club ginger ale is synonymous with Glendale.

CRITICS AGREE ON 'HAIL THE WOMAN' AS NOTED FILM

Picture Answers Demand for 'Better and Bigger' Seems to Be General View
"Hail the Woman" is the triumphant solution of a complicated problem that has become so accentuated of late that producers, distributors and exhibitors cannot ignore it. The problem is: "What does the public really mean when it asks for better and bigger pictures?"
It is only natural that Thomas H. Ince comes forward with such an all-satisfying solution as "Hail the Woman," for he knows motion pictures and the motion picture-going public to the core! "Hail the Woman" is the answer that not only satisfies the cravings of the public and of wearied fans, but it also will meet with the most cordial commendation of the severest critics.

Absolutely No Excuse to Have That Beard

More than a million dollars is being spent by the Durham-Duplex Company in educating the public to the use of its safe and safety razors. There are 1150 newspapers being used to advertise the "priceless" sales which are being held throughout the country and every "he man" reader of The Glendale Evening News today should take advantage of the opportunity, which is this: Go to any one of the dozen stores mentioned and drop a silver coin in the cash box accompanying the display of razors. Then select your shaving utensil and if it is worth more than what you paid, forget it. There is no excuse for any man not having a shave now, it is said.

John A. McBoyle Is Host on His Birthday

John Arthur McBoyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. McBoyle, of 369 West Milford street, entertained a group of his friends yesterday afternoon at a party in celebration of his sixth birthday anniversary. The guests included Wallace Plumb, David Hellyer, Gale Thomas, George Lepper, Marvin Delbert Feuze, Dean Lepper, Teddy Robinson, Billy McMillan, Barbara Plumb, Miss Evelyn Nelson and Miss Nelta Feuze, the latter two assisting in receiving the guests. Mrs. Wallace Plumb assisted Mrs. McBoyle.
The house was decorated in acacia blossoms. St. Patrick's colors and motifs were carried out in the decorations at the table, where a birthday cake, lighted with six green candles, proved to be one of the attractions. The color scheme of green was carried out in the candy baskets, and the ice-cream, through the center of which was molded a shamrock. Green St. Patrick's caps were given the children as favors. The afternoon was spent in playing games.

Social Club Members at J. H. Searles Home

The members of Glen Eyrle Social Club were entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Searles, 643 North Maryland avenue, with Mrs. H. A. McPherson, Mrs. Fred Deal, Mrs. Traver and Mrs. W. McMillan as assisting hostesses. The house was beautifully decorated in peach blossoms and a very delicious luncheon was served. A short business meeting of the club was held during which routine business was dispensed with, with Mrs. Mayme Pollock presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. Orma V. Naudain. The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to needlework.

GIRL MYSTERIOUSLY BEATEN REMAINS UNCONSCIOUS

LOS ANGELES, March 16.—Still unconscious from the effect of blows dealt by a mysterious assailant, beautiful Virginia Lee Davis, 23, who was beaten into insensibility while she lay in bed, was the center today of an anxious group of relatives who waited for the girl to recover consciousness and explain what took place in her bedroom. Efforts to draw the girl in her semi-lucid moments, into narrating what occurred before she received the heavy blows on her head and face which caused her to lose consciousness, were made today by those waiting at the girl's bedside and by police detectives.

PROGRAM OF INDIAN MELODIES TO BE CLUB'S FEATURE

Organization Business Women To Have Entertainment by Cadman Trio March 24

Musical and literary circles are taking a great deal of interest in the forthcoming presentation of the "Melodrama of Hiawatha," which is to be given at the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium Friday night, March 24, by the Cadman trio, which includes Miss Alma Geiger of Glendale, pianiste; Constance Balfour, soloist, and Mrs. William R. Carrott, dramatic reader.

Genuine Indian melodies will be presented in this musical setting. Constance Balfour, one of the premier soprano soloists of California, will render a number of Cadman's Indian songs. The artists will appear in costumes of real Indian headwork, the product of the Sioux and Blackfoot tribes. Indian relics and handwork will be included in the picturesque setting.

This program will be the second of a series of three entertainments being given by the Business and Professional Women's club for the purpose of securing funds for the maintenance of the recently established rest rooms of that organization.

Miss Ethel Preston is chairman of the rest room finance committee which has charge of the entertainments.

Mrs. L. G. Sherman to Entertain for Section

Mrs. L. G. Sherman of 316 West Lexington Drive will entertain the members of the drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, of which Mrs. R. E. Chase is curator, at her home tomorrow afternoon.

The Sport Crucible
By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service Sports Editor

TAMPA, Fla., March 16. — The class today will kindly turn to page 362 and there observe the Sears Roebuck figure of a man attired in the traveling gray of the Washington ball club. He has a round ball in his right hand. A round ball, my children, is so called to distinguish it from all other balls.
The man is comparatively well known as Walter Johnson and were he to step out of that picture and right at this moment throw that round ball he would use an underhand delivery after the manner of Carl Mays, the popular New York heaver.
And now you know as much as we do, a disagreeable way of putting it, we grant you. Walter Johnson is to use an underhand delivery this year. Further than that, he always has used one, according to unimpeachable authority of Clark Griffith, who might be deemed a person of some acquaintance with the subject.
"Yes, sir," quotes Mr. Griffith. "Very few men know it, but Johnson always delivered the ball from below his knee. Except," he amended hastily, "last season, it was, perhaps the worst he has had in the big leagues and I know the answer. He was throwing them up from the shoulder, which was not his natural delivery. Therefore, his fast one tasked the old zip."
Injured in Exhibition Game
"They have been counting Johnson out as a dead one. Nothing could be more absurd. He injured his arm in the spring of 1920 pitching an exhibition game at Roanoke, Va., on a cold day. He wasn't much used to that year and last year he started pitching overhead so his arm wouldn't be subjected to the snap of the side arm delivery.
"You saw how he went in the late season? He had returned to the old style by that time and he was beating them all. Make no mistake, Johnson will be there this year. He is only 34 years old and every one knows how long Cy Young and Matty lasted. They didn't take any better care of themselves than Walter does."
The come-back, if true, makes Washington look very sweet, indeed, in the American league race. Mr. Griffith, if hurried beyond endurance, ance, will make a clean breast of the belief that he has a real ball club.

Peckinpaugh will change his entrant from a first division team to the possible pennant winner. Peck, he declares, is the best shortstop in baseball.
"I gave Joe Dugan for him," he said. "That was merely an incident. I would have given two Dugans if I had them."
The lack of a good shortstop was the only thing that kept Mr. Griffith from finishing one, two, three last year. He doesn't mean to have it happen again. He had the speed with such men as Rice, Judge, Milan and Harris burning up the right of way. The club hit with the best of them and the pitchers did well enough, particularly Mogridge, who developed into one of the best left-handers in the league.
Just at the moment, Clyde Milan is devoting much of his attention to the recruits, who are many and promising. Recruits are always promising, somehow.
Until last night, they had been setting great store by a young man named Leon Goslin who played a few games in the outfield last year and looked like a cool million. Leon, however, has been doing his training on the Christian Science theory and was suspended last night. Those things will happen in the best regulated families.
Two Good Pitchers
Another impressive performer is Ed Goebel, former international leaguer, while the mere mention of one Ole Bluege, shortstop from Peoria, sends Mr. Griffith unto flights of oratory. Two pitchers who are likely to stick are Joe Gleason and Tom Phillips, right handers, respectively, from Shreveport and New Orleans.
The Goslin incident shows how this ball club is being run. Good-will to all, malice toward none, but no favors extended. The team is not bothered with holdouts. At least that's Mr. Griffith's story. He tells his men to report on a certain day, if they do not, automatic suspension follows. After that, if they want to sign, it costs them $100 for the privilege.

SPORTS CHATTER
By BILL UNMACK
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Early season tennis matches are no criterion of the ability of champions. That has been proved time and time again. Just now the California Lawn Tennis association is holding its inter-club championship series. It started last Sunday and will continue over the week-ends at Berkeley, Oakland, Sacramento, Pittsburg, San Jose, Stockton, Modesto and other towns, and included in the play are such men as Bill Johnston, John Strachan, Roland Roberts, the Kinsey brothers and others of national prominence.
Every year he has played Bill Johnston has never shown his real value in these early season matches and the present series is no exception to the rule. Johnston feels that he is in duty bound to play in the early tournaments on this coast, but he does not like it. Tennis fans everywhere are anxious to see the wonderful little Bill Johnston, the country towns like Modesto, Stockton, etc., turn out in thousands when Johnston, Strachan, Roberts or the Kinseys are announced as participants. These players know they are them to conserve themselves for the long period ahead before they go east to the big tournaments at Newport, Boston, etc., to wind up with the National championships.
In the tournament now being played all the men mentioned won their preliminary matches on the first day, but their display was anything from first-class. It is the first time in many months any of the players had a racquet in their hands. Under these conditions it was quite natural that the unheard of players should be able to push the champions to the limit. Those players who do not go east take great pride in the inter-club series and they start training and preparation for it weeks in advance. The champions such as Johnston, Roberts, etc., therefore meet well-trained players in their opening matches, players who are hardened to go through a hard match or series of matches, whereas the champions are soft and if they bump into a hard opponent it is their "court generalship" they have to rely on to carry them through.

Bill Johnston won his match against Joe Tyler, but only by the proverbial "skin of his teeth." Johnston had trouble in winning the first set 6-1, but that just about took all the pep and staying power out of the little champion. The second set Tyler started and piled up point after point against Johnston. The latter was all at sea. His strokes were poor, his placing poorer still and he found it difficult to make "gets." He pulled himself together and with the great tennis brain he possesses Bill finally won out 8-6 only after a struggle that just about took all that Johnston had to give. Of the well-known tennis stars in the series John Strachan showed to be in the best condition. He played a brilliant game and had less trouble of any of the champions of winning his match, defeating his opponent Bob Bimpan of Berkeley in straight sets 6-2; 6-1 love.

The World Over
By FRANKLIN B. MORSE
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

At least three, and probably four, Pacific coast track teams will invade the east during the coming season to contend for various titles with the universities of the Atlantic coast. The University of California is sure to send as strong a team as it is possible for it to organize to the Intercollegiate, and the chances are in favor of Stanford university doing the same thing—provided always that it makes a good showing this spring.
For the Pennsylvania university region states will be represented. The Oregon Agricultural college will be the representative of the Northwest while the honor of the Golden State will be looked after by Redlands college.
It would be futile at this early date to say what the prospects of the University of California are for again winning the National Intercollegiate as there is a vast difference between actual performance and white paper theorizing. However, as far as the white paper process of deduction goes, the Bears look as though they would have a team quite as formidable as the one which brought the coveted trophy to the Pacific coast last year.

The track and field team of the University of California which will compete at the I. C. A. A. A., with the exception of "Pesky" Sprout, the champion quarter mile runner, will have all of the veterans who did such yeoman work last season. In addition to this it will have the services of Jack Merchant, one of the best all-around athletes produced by the Blue and Gold.
Trainer and Coach Walter Christie also has a number of promising men in the sophomore class who are eligible for inter-university competition this year. The veteran coach is going about his affairs with a confidence which augers well for his peace of mind, and the feeling is being communicated to the student body which is expecting the trophy to be retained on this rim of the continent.

USE SULPHUR TO HEAL YOUR SKIN
Broken Out Skin and Itching Eczema Helped Over Night
For unsightly skin eruptions, rash or blotches on face, neck, arms or body, you do not have to wait for relief from torture or embarrassment, declares a noted skin specialist. Apply a little Mentho-Sulphur and improvement shows next day.
Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation. The moment you apply it healing begins. Only those who have had unsightly skin troubles can know the delight this Mentho-Sulphur brings. Even fiery, itching eczema is dried right up.
Get a small jar from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Advertisement.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA
Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.
Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.
While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Advertisement.

Indigestion Unchecked Leads to Poisoning!
Fermentation of Food in Digestive Organs Cause of Trouble
If you suffer from indigestion it is a sure sign that your system is being slowly poisoned by the fermentation in the intestines. This condition produces heartburn, choking sensations in the chest, a feeling of heaviness or drowsiness, irritability, discouragement and despondency.
Mr. M. J. Christopher, 5724 Keyser Street, Germantown, Pa., long a sufferer from indigestion, writes: "Before using Dr. A. W. Chase's medicine, I felt so badly that I did not care whether I lived or died. I suffered from indigestion and my stomach would be so upset that even a piece of bread and a cup of coffee would give me the greatest pain. Since using Dr. A. W. Chase's K-L Pills I can eat almost anything without feeling any after-effects. The sore, big sensation which I used to have in the lower part of my back is gone, and I feel so ambitious to do many things which I could not do before."
You can buy Dr. A. W. Chase's remedies at all drug stores. To be sure of getting the genuine, see that the name and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., are on each box. This trade mark is your protection against imitations and substitutes.—Advertisement.

CHANGE IN TRAFFIC WARNING ISSUED TO THOSE WHO AVOID REGISTERATION

IS PROPOSED TO AVOID DANGER

Attention of City Manager Is Called to Grade Crossing On Glendale Highway

W. S. Flaws, 1445 Lake Shore avenue, Los Angeles, has sent the following communication to William H. Reeves, city manager of Glendale, suggesting a change in traffic regulations:

"May I call your attention to the new traffic rule you have recently put into effect which requires all northbound traffic on the Glendale boulevard to cross over the Pacific Electric tracks about one-half block south of San Fernando road.

"I do not believe the Pacific Electric has as yet installed proper warning signals at this new crossing which makes it rather unsafe for automobile traffic.

More Dangerous Crossings

"During my trip from Los Angeles to Burbank yesterday afternoon I made this crossing just south of the San Fernando road, then proceeded north about one-half block, then turned west on the boulevard, crossing the tracks again. I observed that almost one-half of the automobile traffic here turns west on San Fernando road. This new rule adds two more dangerous grade crossings to all traffic moving north and west on Glendale avenue and San Fernando road.

"May I suggest that this new rule be changed by extending the cross-over point to San Fernando road on all northbound traffic, thereby eliminating these two additional grade crossings for traffic moving north on Glendale avenue and turning west on San Fernando road? I realize this change would add congestion to the intersection of San Fernando road and Glendale avenue, but I believe the change is justified from a safety standpoint.

City Manager's Statement

City Manager Reeves states that the purpose in making use of the crossing at Gardena avenue was the reduction of traffic congestion at the corner of Brand boulevard and San Fernando road, which was especially apparent on Sundays. He and officials of the city of Glendale, and the Automobile Club of Southern California investigated this matter and it was the unanimous opinion that the Gardena crossing should be used as it is at the present time and it is also their belief that it has been satisfactory thus far. Mr. Reeves is also of the opinion that proper warning signals should be installed.

Cannot Dodge Jury Duty by Not Registering, Declares D. B. Lyons, Registrar

L. W. Ball of 363 West Elk avenue, deputy registrar of voters, is in receipt of the following communication from D. B. Lyons, registrar:

"To My Deputies: From several of you I have learned from time to time that both men and women eligible to vote have declined to register, thinking thereby to avoid being called to serve as jurors. I will not make any comment upon the attitude of such citizens except to advise them that their position is not well taken.

"It is not necessary that a citizen shall be a registered voter in order to be called to jury duty. The fact that they are eligible to vote is sufficient. Furthermore, you may state that I have called this matter to the special attention of those whose duty it is to make up lists of possible jurors, and have urged them to call to jury duty wherever possible, these very people who, being eligible to vote, refuse to register.

"I deem the right of suffrage the greatest privilege and the most imperative duty of an American citizen. I will therefore do whatever I may be able to do to cause every one eligible to register as a voter to register and vote. Please preserve this for future reference."

The Store of Dependable Merchandise ANNUAL SHAMROCK SALE The Store of Dependable Merchandise

Will Open Fri., Mar. 17, and Continue Until Sat., Mar. 25

There will be many, many wonderful bargains during these eight days---especially in LINENS

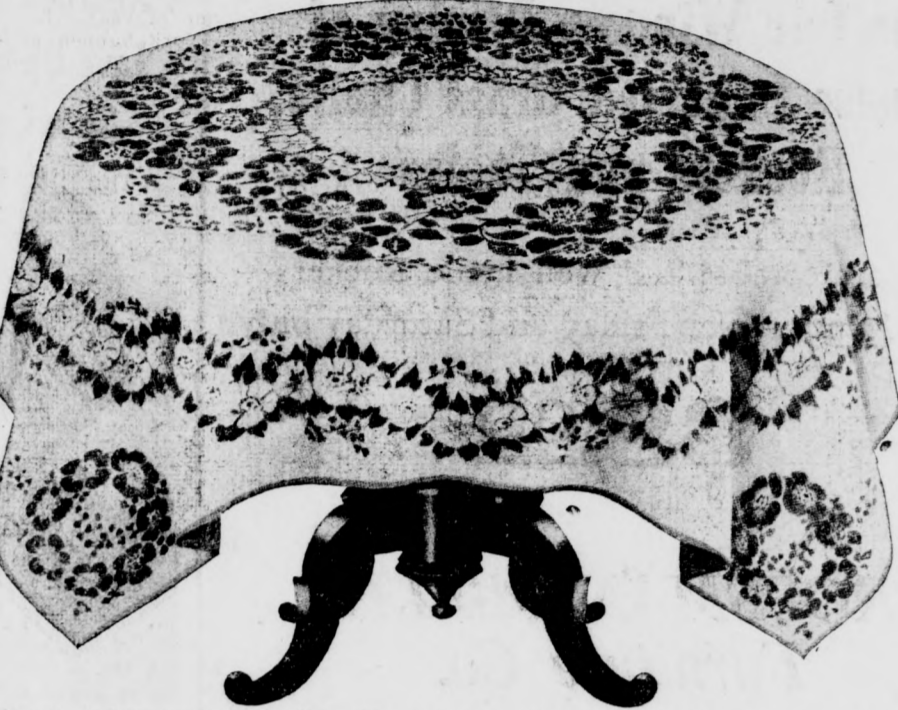

—Every woman, whether interested in buying or not, should read and save this advertisement, as it contains much valuable information on "The Care of Linens—How to Remove Stains, Etc."

In addition to Linens we will have on sale many new things in Spring White Goods, Colored Wash Fabrics, Staple and Fancy Silks, Spreads, Towels, Handkerchiefs, etc.

THE CARE OF LINENS

Pure Irish Linen is indeed "A Treasure in Every Home" and should be handled with care. Pure Linens have an indefinite length of life if not abused. Never keep Linen where the temperature is too warm and too dry, as it will become dry and brittle with a tendency to turn yellow. A cedar chest or closet in a cool fresh room is the ideal place to store Linen—it will then retain its whiteness, its silky sheen and far outlive Linen stored in a hot place or Linen constantly exposed to daylight. Always launder new Linens before laying them away for a length of time and remember—the more sunshine in drying, the more beautiful the whiteness. It is impossible for public laundries to give the necessary attention to fine Linens; they should be washed in the home. Cotton will stand boiling with washing soda without being injured, but Linen will not. Under no conditions should washing soda be used with Linen.

Use Ivory soap or a good mild soap and rinse well. When Linen turns yellow after washing, as a rule, it is not the fault of the Linen, but is the result of not properly rinsing out the soap with clean water. The secret of keeping Linen white is to use as mild a soap as possible and immediately wring out several times in fresh water. Table Linen should be ironed first on the right and then on the wrong side—iron from selvaige to selvaige for best results.

The cloth illustrated is one of the patterns. There are also Chrysanthemums, Carnations, Wisteria, Key and Spot Designs

REMOVING STAINS FROM TABLE LINEN

Note—Never allow a stain to remain with the intention of taking it out "some time soon." While it is fresh is the time to remove it.

For Tea and Coffee Stains—Hold tightly over a bowl and pour boiling water thru—hold water at some height to give a little more force to the fall.

Chocolate Stains—Sprinkle the stain with powdered borax, soak in cold water for 20 minutes and treat as coffee stain.

Egg Stains—Soak in cold water until removed.

Grease Stains—Remove immediately with benzene, naphtha, ether or chloroform.

Peach Stains—Cover stain with wet salt and let stand for twenty-four hours—then wash in lukewarm water.

Fruit Stains—Soak in milk for a couple of hours; then use boiling water as in coffee stain.

Blood Stains—Do not use boiling water, but tepid water with, say one ounce of soda to each pint—sometimes ammonia will have to be used.

Iron Rust Stains—Place cloth over bowl of boiling water with stain just under surface and apply a few crystals of salts of lemon (poison), rubbing lightly with a piece of wood. Repeat if necessary and always rinse with ammonia to remove poison.

LINENS AT LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES—CLOTHS AND NAPKINS AT COST

However, we were fortunate enough to get a large number of Pure Irish Linen Damask Cloths and Napkins of a quality that will retain the snowy white, silky texture and stand constant laundering in a wonderful manner. Since these arrived Linen prices have been advanced quite a little, but as a matter of advertising we have decided to sell—

OPPOSING 'DIRT FARMER'

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16.—Opposition to increasing the membership of the federal reserve board to make a place for the appointment of a "dirt farmer" was voiced before the house banking and currency committee by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

"Increase in membership might lead to decrease in efficiency," Mellon said. "Private business has found a managing board of five or seven members more efficient than a larger board." The "dirt farmer" bill, asked by the "agricultural bloc," has already passed the senate.

REDEMPTION OF WOMEN Will Be Tried Out

WASHINGTON—Reversing his traditional penal policy of the last fifty years, Uncle Sam in the future will attempt to redeem from lives of crime all feminine offenders against the Federal statutes.

Under an amendment to the statutes, passed by the senate, future women prisoners of the government of all ages may be sent to state reformatories instead of federal prisons in the discretion of the committing judge. This change in the law, advocated by many welfare societies, was accomplished when senators were told it was intended as a means of preventing feminine first offenders from becoming steeped in crime while serving out their sentences.

Supporters of the movement at first desired that the women offenders be sent to houses of refuge, but Senator Watson (D.), of Georgia, so vigorously opposed the suggestion that this feature was eliminated from the measure. It was then decided that Uncle Sam should do his reforming at state reformatories, this feature being added to the amendment on motion of Senator Harris (D.), of Georgia.

Much debate was occasioned in the senate prior to adoption of the amendment. It was pointed out that the government for fifty years had absolutely rejected all attempts to change the penal code in this respect. The amendment, however, gained sufficient support to insure its pass-

Landru Case Is Plot for New French Play

PARIS—Charles Henry Hirsch, one of the country's foremost playwrights and whose play, "La Danseuse Rouge," which depicts the life and death of Mata Hari, famous woman spy, shot during the war, had such a long run in Paris, now contemplates writing "Les Amours de Landru."

For several weeks he has been busily engaged consulting various documents connected with the case and has often been seen taking sketches and notes in the Versailles court, where Landru was sentenced.

J. J. Deacon of 556 West Colorado street has reported the theft of a spare tire, rim, tire rack and tail light from his car.

VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR REVEALS HEALTH SECRET

Tells of Wonderful Remedy That Has Kept Him Fit for Thirty Years

The Civil War ended more than fifty years ago, and the veterans of that great conflict are rapidly passing. The soldiers of that period endured many hardships, were exposed to the elements and in many cases, were illy fed. These conditions led to chronic ailments of all kinds, such as rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, constipation, heart trouble and diseases of the kidneys and liver.

One veteran, Mr. Abram Arnold, R. F. D. No. 2, Campbell, N. Y., now in his 77th year and hale and hearty, tells how he has kept himself in good health. He writes:

"I have made use of Dr. A. W. Chase's medicines for 25 or 30 years and during that time they have never failed to do all that is recommended of them. I am a veteran of the Civil War—almost 77 years old, and was through fifteen hard fought battles, but am still living with the help of Dr. A. W. Chase's Tonic Pills. I have a bad heart, and find these pills of wonderful benefit for this trouble. Anyone wishing further particulars may write me, and I will gladly reply, as I want people to know of this wonderful remedy."

You can buy Dr. A. W. Chase's remedies at all drug stores. To be sure of getting the genuine, see that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on each box. This is a trade mark for your protection against imitations.—Advertisement 3

C. W. GRIGSBY

C. W. Grigsby, successor to the Poultry and Pet Stock Exchange, operates one of the most interesting establishments in Glendale at 117 West Broadway. Poultry, rabbits, dogs and birds, poultry supplies, feed and garden seed, and eggs and fresh dressed poultry and rabbits plenty both Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby like to do in attending to their stock, to say nothing of selling hundreds of dollars' worth daily.

The business has been established for a year and the present owner took charge last December. He formerly was engaged in business in Pulaski, Tenn., but moved west and settled at 1236 Valley View road, northern Glendale.

Poultry provides the largest part of his business, although quite a number of patrons are looking for pets. At the present time, however, there seems to be a heavy demand for dogs as only one is left and that silver bound puppy is crying for a new owner. Plenty of parrots are to be had and canaries are comparatively cheap.

"We dress quite a lot of poultry for particular people," said Mr. Grigsby, this morning, "they come here and select the chicken or rabbit they want and have it killed and dressed to order."

"I find this a wonderful climate for pets—there being little disease and practically no deaths except with the baby chicks. It is a live business for Glendale," concluded this newcomer to Glendale.

The Lawrence, headed by Captain Ed W. Lawrence, took the lead in Class B division of the Glendale Elks' scratch bowling league last night by winning one and tying one game of a three-game match with Vogel's "San Fernando Satellites." By keeping their standing relatively even the Lawrence were allowed to coast into first place through the decisive victory registered over the deposed Wattles by Vincent Salmacia's "Phonograph Trio."

The tie score, which was made by the Lawrence and Vogel's in their initial contest, was the first even game that has been turned in since the league opened several weeks ago. Both teams totaled 440 pins. It is probable that the contest will be replayed before the close of the season.

The Bullards, who seem to have cinched the cellar position in the percentage column, managed to win one game from the Wests, both teams being crippled by the absence of regular players.

Individual high scores for each of the six teams were as follows: Wattles, 160; Salmacias, Salmacia, 156; Wests, Morris, 186; Bullards, Bullard, 148; Vogels, Royles, 190; Lawrence, Kausen, 169.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Common Sense Talk Not Playing Politics Progress Plentiful Here Giving the Girls a 'Kick'
By Gil A. Cowan

COMMON sense talk! That's what Congressman Walter F. Lineberger writes in a letter to the publisher of The Glendale Evening News. Here are a few thoughts contained in his communication which are worthy of comment:
"Owing to the policy of retrenchment the various departments, committees, bureaus, etc. are not publishing as many documents for general distribution as heretofore. I feel sure that the people of the Ninth district who wish certain specified publications will write to me for them, and I am always glad to obtain and forward them if at all possible."

"Another reason for refraining from this general distribution of documents and speeches, or parts of speeches, is that I believe that the people of the district have sent me here to do certain specific work for them instead of attempting to play politics and to advertise myself and my name by the use of the government franking privilege, which privilege has been very greatly abused all over the country and particularly in our own district during the past years."

How strange it seems to have a real, honest-to-goodness practical man representing the Ninth district at this time—not playing politics, but serving his constituency. He is not trying to advertise himself by the use of the government franking privilege, thereby clogging the mails and otherwise shutting off the necessary things.
Congressman Lineberger also is to be commended in getting the voice of his constituency. He wired the commanders of the American Legion as to just what they wanted in the bonus bill. He only recently wired for the judgment of the Chambers of Commerce in this district regarding his shifting from the Foreign Affairs committee to the Rivers and Harbors committee. Today he is asking the advice of the publisher of The Glendale Evening News in a half dozen matters which are made public in our columns.

Speaking of Lineberger is getting into a fine attribute and the person who honestly seeks information will learn much. Congressman Lineberger stands in that unique position.
Glancing through the columns of The Glendale Evening News there is prosperity apparent! The representative business firms which are using large amounts of display space bespeak the business being done.

It is interesting to read of the progress of the city. See how property is selling on North Brand boulevard from Wilson avenue to Lexington drive for something like $400 per front foot, some higher and a little lower, depending on which side of the street the building site is located.
Glancing through the industrial advertisements in this issue and note the many things which you can buy "made in Glendale." And that is only part of the story. Look at how much more you can buy in Glendale now than two, five or ten years ago.

Specialty shops are springing up on every side, handling everything that man, woman or child might want. Department stores are getting ready to blossom forth with the flowers of spring. By golly, but this is some booming burg!

Our sweet girl graduates are going to develop the "kick" that the nation now lacks. Genevieve Kelso, 12-year creator of the Marion Morgan dancers, has been secured by the state university and will give progressive classes in dancing during the Los Angeles summer session. Social dancing, designed primarily for those interested in the improvement of conditions influencing the social life of high school and college students, will be given.

Trust to Hiram Johnson to get a rise out of some of the "rock ribbed" political organs. When the senior California senator turns loose on any subject, trust to the ton-toms to start beating in an effort to drown his thunder.
The cheapest campaign advertising any person can obtain is the opposition of certain interests.

Locals and Personals
S. Y. Gillan of Vicksburg, Miss., arrived in Glendale Tuesday night and will remain for a month or two as the guest of his son, S. L. Gillan of 293 West Maple avenue.
Mr. and Mrs. William Justema of 1237 Viola avenue will entertain as their guests at dinner tonight Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Stephenson of 327 West Cypress street.
Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hastings and son, George Hastings of 319 West Lexington Drive, entertained as their guests at dinner Tuesday night Mrs. Ella Allowell and daughter, Miss Gladys Allowell.
The members of the Ladies' Guild of the Lutheran church are planning a social meeting Friday, March 17, at the home of Mrs. C. A. Kohr, 532 North Louise street, and have issued a general invitation to their friends to attend.

LOCAL BASKETBALL TEAM WINS WAY INTO FINALS

cited state, and before they could properly adjust themselves to the new grounds and conditions the Montebello-ites had amassed a four-point lead, which was cut down to two by the end of the initial period. The half ended with Montebello leading by the score of 9 to 7.
During the first half Glendale's scoring in this period, with the exception of Howard Wimmer, who outshone any player on the court, were given numerous opportunities to score, but they seemed unable to locate the wire hoop. Practically all of Montebello's scoring in this period was accomplished by long shots, particularly by "Slats" Emmons, the six-foot center and individual star of the day. This elongated youth, who was able to spread his 130 pounds through seventy-three inches of vertical space, kept the spectators continually on edge with his accurate long distance throwing. On three separate occasions he scored field goals from the center of the field.

Wimmer's Work Good
For the locals, Howard Wimmer, who was playing at center for the first time this year, proved to be the "whole works" when it came to propelling the elusive spheroid through the rival team's basket, he being directly responsible for twelve of his team's total of twenty markers. He was "nowhere and everywhere" on the court at all times and managed to outshine his teammates in spite of the fact that he was a "marked man" after several minutes of play.
Next to Wimmer was "Pete" Fruhling, Coach Hayhurst's stellar guard and all-around athlete of the school. Playing under a handicap of a badly-injured finger, this young man proceeded to do all that could be expected of any guard and was largely responsible for keeping the opposing forwards "within the safety zone" at all times. Butts and Wimmer also made creditable showings.
Montebello's individual honors were about evenly divided between the aforementioned Emmons and "Shorty" Fowler, the latter being the player who has been mentioned as the one who was responsible for most of the Oil City team's string of victories throughout the season. "Cicero" Melendrez, guard, also started for the losers.

The line-ups were as follows:
Glendale Pos. Montebello
Colburn, Roach.....F. Reynolds, Fowler
Butts, Lovell.....F. Reynolds, Childs
Wimmer, Jansen.....C. Emmons
Fruhling.....G. Dutcher
Cline.....G. Melendrez
Referee, Skillwell.

Old Catholic Church Property Cut in Lots

Memories of the days when Glendale was a mission field are stirred by the announcement today that the old Catholic church building on Everett street, between Elk and Loma avenues, will be razed. Caldwell and Elliott of 300 South Brand boulevard have bought the property and are placing eleven lots on the market, the announcement of which appears in the advertising columns.
The thousands of worshippers who have wended their way to the shaded nook where the church stood in the Childs' tract, will readily appreciate the realty value there and all of the lots likely will be gone by Sunday when the chimes ring for services at the new edifice.

REALTY BOARD HERE FAVORS MOVE FOR 'OWN YOUR HOME'

In National Association
Glendale Realty board's application for membership in the National Association of Real Estate Boards has been favorably acted upon according to a letter received last night from the secretary of the state association. This announcement was received with general approval.

"This not only means greater prestige to the local organization," remarked Mr. Hayward, "but it entitles each member to use the term 'realtor.' This term is being misused very generally at present in Glendale, owing largely to the fact that most people are ignorant of its true meaning. Those who are not entitled to use this term will be asked to refrain from doing so except by proper authority."

On Executive Committee
C. D. Thom of the Glendale Realty company, 151 1/2 South Brand boulevard, president of the Glendale Realty board, was elected as its representative for two years on the executive committee of the National Real Estate association.

A letter was read from the secretary of the National association stating that arrangements had been made to secure reductions in fares for members and their families who desire to attend the national real estate dealers' convention in San Francisco May 31 to June 3. All those desiring reservations are requested to notify E. P. Hayward, secretary of the Glendale Realty board.

Discussion of the multiple listing system was deferred until the next business meeting on March 29.

GIVE CONSTITUTION LINEBERGER STATES CHOSEN CHAIRMAN

HEARTY SUPPORT, URGES SPEAKER

Harry F. Atwood of Chicago in Address at Meeting of High School P.-T. A.

CENTRAL EUROPE 'SHELL-SHOCKED'

Congressman of This District Back From Abroad Tells Economic Conditions

SCHOOL SURVEY ORGANIZATION

W. Q. Widdows Selected to Head Body in Charge of Educational Activity

(Continued from Page 1) and light began to come out of darkness and order out of chaos. Until we began abandoning the constitution and modifying the form of government and incorporating things that had proven failures hundreds and thousands of years ago, according to history, the government as outlined by these men had been a success. This was the result of laying a foundation of government which was the result of analysis, study of history and application of experience. Then there followed a hundred years of progress, during which this country was the most normal that had ever been known.

"The aim of the public schools is to make better and enlightened citizens, and yet practically two-thirds of the university students have not read the constitution." In further commenting upon the present condition of Russia, Mr. Atwood stated: "When Lenin left New York he stated that he had studied the ideas of five of the most well-known men of this country and thought they had improvements on what had been established by the constitution. He tried to put the ideas in force and to make it a better country. Mr. Lenin put the ideas in force, but instead of improving the country it brought it to a sad state of disorder."

"The men who wrote the constitution and founded this republic warned against democracy. The 'Federalist,' which interprets the constitution, is conceded to be the greatest governmental document of the libraries of the world, according to students of political science, and contains the answer to 80 per cent of the difficult problems that confront the countries which are in chaos today."

In describing the fallacy of the idea of democracy as applied to government, Mr. Atwood gave as an analogy the example of how it would work out applied to baseball, with the decisions given by the bleachers. He stated that such a state of affairs would result in the end of baseball, and so with government.

"Yet, twenty-two states have enacted the initiative, referendum and recall and think they are trying something new, when these were some of the important things that caused the downfall of Greece and Rome," he said.

"Providence placed a tremendous responsibility upon the wise exercise of the law of selection. These men who wrote the constitution understood this important law. During the hundred years of progress following the writing of the constitution there was no talk of democracy, or of the distinction between the classes and the masses, as is so common now. The idea then was individual reward for individual conduct."

"One of the supreme duties of the hour is to try to get a clear understanding of the constitution and convey that understanding to as many people as possible," he concluded.

The meeting was in charge of the president of the association, Mrs. E. B. Wyman, and secretary, Miss Eva Daniels. Preceding the short business session a cake sale was conducted by Mrs. E. B. Moore, netting the treasury $5.90. Mrs. Wyman announced the first district conference to be held in Glendale on April 4, at which time the national P.-T. A. president, Mrs. Milton Higgins, will be present. The meeting will begin in the morning at 10 o'clock and continue until 4 in the afternoon. A candy sale will be given by the High School Parent-Teacher Association the latter part of the month. Announcement was made of the three one-act plays given today and tomorrow by the senior dramatics class of the school. The flag salute was led by Mrs. E. B. Moore.

(Continued from Page 1) interestedness the unjust or unfair treatment of one nation by another. We must make peace so desirable and practice and spread the doctrine of fellowship and fair dealing so persistently that all nations will eventually learn that the horrors of war can be avoided if we will only earnestly and consistently seek to find the way.

Having seen the bitter animosity with which France and Germany still regard each other, I do not believe that these century-old hatreds can be broken out in five years, nor ten, and perhaps neither of us will live to see it, but I do feel that it is the goal for which we must unceasingly strive. It is not without the realm of possibility that there will be another European war before this could be brought about, but we, as a nation and as individuals, must do everything we can to bring about a closer understanding between nations and people. I deeply feel that America must think, feel, write and talk of the desirability of a peace based on mutual understanding at all times, in and out of season, so that other nations will have no misconception of our ideas. Perhaps our attitude may serve as the restraining influence when passions run high.

Germany Hive of Industry

"We must either remain entirely aloof or take our share of the world's problems, and modern inventions which have brought and will continue to bring nations into closer relationship will not permit us to remain entirely outside the march of world events."

"Germany is a hive of industry, and while she has very little in raw materials, and practically no money with which to purchase them, she is trading her labor for them and working steadily, on the whole contentedly, philosophically making the best of the situation. She is so infinitely better off than she was during the war there is less discontent among her common people than in any other nation in Europe, the victor nations not excepted. This is no doubt largely due to the natural industry, frugal habits and plodding proclivities of her people, but it is true nevertheless."

"The younger element has great love and faith in the new regime, but many of the elder ones still believe in the kaiser, and regret the passing of his power."

"The Germans, because of their disillusionment on Mr. Wilson's 'fourteen points,' and the French, because of our failure to enter the much-heralded League of Nations, are both inclined to view all conferences with cynicism and a skepticism born of their own experiences; notwithstanding they are watching the outcome of the limitation of Armament Conference with great interest and when the treaties which emanated therefrom finally receive the sanction of the Senate, as they no doubt will, I feel that this fact will do more than any other one thing to prove to them that it is still possible for the administrative and legislative branches of our government to work together in stabilizing world conditions and in lessening the causes of war."

"France, through no fault of her own, is in far worse condition than Germany. Her fairest and most productive provinces in the north, over which the battles raged for four long years, are in a deplorable condition, having been devastated from the Alsace-Lorraine border to the sea. Of course, it will be a long time before these devastated sections can be restored to pre-war fruitfulness and production, but considering the magnitude of the task to be performed and that practically no indemnity has been forthcoming, it is marvelous what the French have accomplished."

"The work of reconstructing the shell-riddled villages and cities which were the abodes of the population has proceeded very slowly indeed, but the fields and industries, the essential and income-producing elements of the national life, are being rapidly restored. The parallel of their policy in bringing the devastated region back to normal life is found in that of our western pioneers, who first planted their fields and created the elements necessary for food and profit while living in dugouts and shacks under the most unfavorable living conditions. The law of economic necessity seems to compel men to more or less the same general action in all climes and in all ages so it is not strange that these people are pursuing the policy which I observed."

"French Haven't Much Faith
"Psychologically, the French people have little faith in the integrity of nations, and may be said to be more or less cynical and skeptical of the ability of other nations to protect them from the foe to the north, from whom they have suffered three invasions within the last century. They are, therefore, disposed to rely on their own strong arm of military defense, and are keeping up an army which is out of proportion to their economic resources to maintain. Whatever its military value, it is an economic liability, and I question whether or not its seeming military advantages will, in the long run, justify the handicap which it places on the nation during the trying reconstruction period when all its material and moral resources are necessary to reconstruct its economic life."

W. Q. Widdows was named chairman of the special school survey committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce when that special group met last night to plan its work.

Dr. Jessie A. Russell, chairman of the civic committee, will be secretary of the school inquisitorial group. It was decided by those members present that all of the facts in possession of the city and union high school boards should be called for and with that information as a basis work could be done with greater facility.

The committee is instructed to go into subject of school needs and report on proposed bond issues.

Those On Committee

The grammar school now has a committee active along the same lines while the high school board seeks advice from the Chamber. Members of the committee other than those mentioned are S. S. Gilhuly, J. R. Grey, W. E. Hewitt, Dr. William C. Mabry, Ella W. Richardson, L. T. Rowley and C. W. Young, all of whom are active in civic and school affairs, it is said.

counsel, will do much to help them solve their difficulties, if they will but lend a friendly ear to our advice and not allow themselves to drift into a position of political and economic isolation.

Belgium's Showing Good

"Considering what she went through during the war, Belgium is more rapidly returning to normalcy than is any other European nation, and the intense industry and sticel attitude of her people are a marvel and admiration of all foreign visitors. Every man, woman, child, and dog, seems to be at work in Belgium. As you perhaps well know, dogs are largely used as draft animals in Belgium, and I saw teams of them hitched to light draft plows, plowing in the fields. She seems to realize that she must largely work out her own salvation and to have imbibed the eternal verity of the old saying that 'God helps those who help themselves.'"

"A few days ago I had nearly an hour's conversation with President Harding in which we discussed many phases of the European situation as I had found them and as various reports thereof had been made to him by others. He was most thoroughly informed, and it was quite evident to me he will not be found lacking in any way when European questions

Strange Fires Cause Household Terrorism

ENID, Okla., March 16.—Following a series of mysterious fires which have kept the entire household in a state of terrorism, Mrs. Ona Smith, 23, was removed from her home in Alva to a hospital. Watchers remained in her home while others were near her bedside in the hospital to see if the strange blue flames would again appear around her bed. Mrs. Smith is a permanent invalid and cannot leave her bed. In three days from the hospital she was moved to a room in her home. Blue flames were seen to issue from the mattress. The mattress was finally changed, but the flames again issued from the bed. The mattress was carefully examined, but while watchers sat in the room the flames were seen to break forth again and again. Later a blue blaze appeared on a calendar on the wall, igniting the wall paper.

Strange Fires Cause Household Terrorism

It was finally decided to move the patient to a hospital and await developments. Physicians are at a loss to account for the fires and said there was no possibility that Mrs. Smith could have set them herself. A search for chemicals which might have started the flames was made, but without results.
